Curtis called and then emailed me regarding the sidewalk and scheduling us for them to come and resurface the walkway.

The handicapped doors are 98% repaired: Romeo Electric and LVD Group came to troubleshoot and repair the broken mechanics and electrical. The doors are operating now, but two of our buttons need to be replaced. LVD sent us a quote on replacing them and will do the replacement if approved.

Our Book Sale kicks off Monday!

Our Craft Fair is half way full. Please let anyone you think may be interested to fill out an application or call us.

We have settled a date for this year's Teen Film Festival: it will be June 1st here at the library. They are aware and chose the date knowing I may not be in attendance myself, but will be prepared and covered to run the event regardless.

We will be participating in the Piermont Film Festival this year again. We will host the family-friendly film on Sunday, June 11th.
